

SUMMARY OF QUALIFICATIONS

Ms. Hammer is a Forensic Scientist with experience in forensic casework, laboratory supervision and scientific instruction. She has performed analyses, reported and testified in latent print, footwear and tire track, controlled substance and crime scene disciplines and holds professional certifications in Forensic Footwear Examination, Criminalistics and Crime Scene Analysis. Ms Hammer supervised a Forensic Physical Unit in an ASCLD accredited laboratory, has published articles, performed research and has provided forensic evidence related instruction to law enforcement, crime laboratory personnel and others throughout the United States and in Canada.

FORMAL EDUCATION

Master of Science, Forensic Science, University of Strathclyde, Scotland 2007

Master of Arts, Teaching, University of Alaska Anchorage, 1990

Bachelor of Arts, Earth and Environmental Science, Alaska Pacific University 1987

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Hammer Forensics LLC (January 2010 to present)

Examines casework and provides testimony, consultation and training related to forensic Footwear and Tire Track Evidence and Crime Scene Physical Evidence Collection.

State of Alaska DPS Crime Lab (1994 to 2009)

Supervising Forensic Scientist from 2002 to 2009. Responsible for supervision, training and coordination of casework in the crime scene, latent print and shoe and tire track unit. Conducted technical reviews, met accreditation standards, designed quality assurance, training and safety programs. Functioned as the laboratory training coordinator.

Forensic Scientist assigned to casework from 1994 to 2002. Analytical experience in footwear and tire track examination, latent print processing and comparison and crime scene evidence documentation, collection and preservation.

Anchorage School District (1990 to 1994)

Chemistry and General Science teacher.

PROFESSIONAL CERTIFICATIONS

Certified Footwear Examiner by the International Association for Identification

Certified Forensic Footwear Examiner by the Canadian Identification Society

Diplomate in General Criminalistics by the American Board of Criminalistics
